Women Fight Over Articles, Pull Hair and Rip Off One Another's Clothes.

MANY INJURED IN STRUGGLE

False Alarm of Fire Adds to Panic, and Long Line of Ambulances Are Needed.

DETROIT, MICH., July 3.—The floor of a 5 and 10 cent store on Woodward avenue collapsed at 9:20 o'clock this morning.

The Kresge concern was having its opening to-day in a new location at the corner of Woodward avenue and State street.

Two women are said to have reached simultaneously for the same article and to have begun scuffling over it. This caused a little excitement in their immediate neighborhood, and attracted the attention of those nearby.

The onlookers pressed about them and suddenly the cry of "fire" was heard.

It turned out to be a false alarm, but the panic had become a mad rush, and many were injured.

Members of the fire department were summoned and the injured were hurried to hospitals.

BREWERS HEAVY LOSERS

Dry Wave Causes Big Shortage in Revenue from Beer Sales.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., July 3.—The enormous loss of business to brewers and distillers through the dry wave is shown indirectly in the report of the local internal revenue office for the year ending June 30, this report showing a reduction of internal revenue amounting to $22,000 for that period.

Practically the entire loss is due to the falling off in the output of beer. This year's receipts were $3,823,948 for beer alone, as against $4,174,100 for the preceding year.

Plans for New Canal.

NEW ORLEANS, July 3.—The preliminary plans and maps for a proposed intercoastal canal between New Orleans and Galveston have been practically completed and the work of digging the channel will be pushed forward vigorously.

according to Colonel Lansing H. Beach, of the engineering department of the United States army, who returned yesterday from Washington, where he had been in conference with the heads of the army engineering division.

SHAW AFTER ROOSEVELT

Article on Socialism Represents "The Noodle Orator Up to Date."

BOSTON, July 3.—In a letter to C. F. McCotter, a Boston friend, G. Bernard Shaw, the Irish playwright, handles unmercifully ex-President Roosevelt in connection with the latter's remarks.

It is only a "noodle" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak," the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the pangs of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

Wright's New Dental Device

This is a wonderfully effective device for use by dentists in the preparation of artificial teeth of all kinds.

It prevents injury to certain parts of such teeth, and thus removes the cause for breakage.

This new device has been installed in my office, at 919½ East Main Street, where my patients may enjoy its advantages. The device has been warmly commended by the press.

Of what use is it unless you help enforce it. See that you get Java and Mocha when you ask and pay for it. If it is not printed on the can or package, you are sure you are not getting the genuine Java or Mocha. But what's the use of taking chances on can or package food when you can see it green and have it roasted while you wait at cent article on socialism. Mr. Shaw says:

"A serious reply to Mr. Roosevelt's article cannot be written in this country. In England the article is only the Noodle orator up to date. Its sentiments would be very proper and suitable for the sheriff of a district on the pioneering edge of a territory of the United States, but coming, as it does, from the pen of one who has been President for nearly eight years it is a staggering revelation of how little American President may know about his own business. He might almost as well be a king."

Are you quite sure that Theodore is not just pulling your legs in his release from the White House?"

BLOW IN COUNCIL FEUD

Member Called to Order Strikes President After Session.

BALTIMORE, July 3.—A sensational row occurred in the first branch of City Council last night, resulting in Fred Hellman, member from the Eighteenth Ward, smashing W. W. Cherry, president of the branch, in the face with his fist.

The president, at a recent session of Council, had the sergeant-at-arms place Hellman under arrest, and since then there has been a bitter feeling between the two. In last night's session, Hellman intimated openly that he would remove the president, who was in the chamber, was prompting the president, and was called to order.

Words followed.

When the session closed the two men met in the corridor, where Cherry called Hellman a "dirty, mean coward."

Hellman, Cherry, and the two men were separated by other members. Resolutions will be introduced next Tuesday preferring charges and calling for Hellman's expulsion from Council.

BRIDE QUITS STAR ROUTE

Had Carried the Mail for Eighteen Years When Cupid Came.

WILKESBARE, Pa., July 3.—Mrs. Fannie Merrill, who for eighteen years has each day, except Sunday, carried the mail between Benton and Fairmount Springs, Pa., and who, in the winter, ended her work yesterday, and will go to Berwick with her husband, to whom she was married a few months ago, to live. Stephen Steadman takes her place.

Mrs. Merrill, as Miss Fannie Sutcliffe, started carrying the mail over the long country road eighteen years ago. She did not tire of the work, but gave it up only because her husband desired to remove to Berwick.

The farmers' wives had so much confidence in her that they got her to do much of their shopping and various errands.

General Bingham will talk with the newspaper men at a few minutes before going aboard the steamship Florio for Nova Scotia. "I am feeling mighty good," said the general, "just like a schoolboy turned out for the summer. Am I glad to get away? Well, don't I look it? What do you say, Hansen? Don't I look like a man who was glad to get off the job?"

"I believe, honestly, that I am leaving New York with the respect of the better part of the people, and that's good enough for me. I want to express my appreciation of the way the newspapers have treated me, and especially in the past few months. What they have said in the last few days was bully. You can bet I will never forget that."

"Will you be a candidate for Mayor, General?"

"Oh, stop," said General Bingham, laughing and throwing up his hands. "Don't put me into the ring. I come back to town I come as a Republican, though, and I can say or do anything I please."

Wide-Open Town Predicted.

The Democratic Union sent out a tip to-day that the town is to be wide-open under the new police administration.

"Those persons that have been deploring the absence of a moral issue for the fusion campaign need not worry further," said the Union's statement. "The appointment of Commissioner Baker is already proclaimed by the voters within a few days, and the way is open for a wide-open town and the resumption of the old partnership between the police and the politicians."

"It means $500,000 of additional election money from these sources, 900 games on the basis of four in a precinct in Manhattan, Brooklyn and Queens; roulette, shorted and fortune, the reopening of a limited number of protected pool-rooms, and an extension to the upper West Side of the disorderly house schedule prevailing in Harlem and the East Side."

The reopening of these gambling houses and of pool-rooms under the protection of Tammany district leaders would enable Tammany to have plenty of money for the coming campaign. But the only defeat Tammany has sustained since the creation of the Greater New York occurred in 1901, when Devery was Chief of Police, the town was wide open, and Tammany was unbridled and undisputed control of the Police Department."

CABBY SLAIN BY GAY YOUTH

Refusal of Joy Ride Believed to Have Caused Tragedy.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., July 3.—State Detective O. E. Carney is sure that Edward Stellar, who died in the Doob Perry Hospital Monday night, was dragged from his cab and clubbed to death with an iron coupling pin.

The murderers are believed to be young men well known in Dobbs Ferry, who had a custom of holding up cabs in the dark highway and demanding a "joy ride." John A. Best, Stellar's employer, is certain he knows who these young men are. When the local police were told the names of the suspects they refused to take the matter seriously.

Stellar's body was buried without an autopsy. "The body was black and blue from bruises, the head was cut

Carries Bundle of Photographs and Documents That Will Figure in Fall Campaign.

COMMISSIONER'S TROUBLES

Tenderloins Prepare for Golden Age, but Baker Comes Down With a Heavy Hand.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEW YORK, July 3.—The new Police Commissioner made Fredrick H. Bugher first deputy yesterday, but he is having a hard time finding a second and a fourth deputy. "Mr. Pratt, of Brooklyn," didn't want an appointment, the veteran Gortright refused, and several other men Mayor McClellan and Commissioner Baker were anxious to get balked after thinking things over.

General Bingham sailed for Nova Scotia to-day in high spirits, laughing at the stories that he had ordered detectives to shadow the Mayor, Justice Gaynor, Comptroller Metz and other city officials. With the general went Daniel G. Sullivan, who carried a bundle of photographs and documents that will be useful, it is hinted, as campaign ammunition next fall.

Kelly Turns Around.

The Mayor had no sooner started on his vacation than Commissioner Baker transferred the new Inspector-at-Large, Thomas J. Kelly, to the command of the Twelfth Inspection District, Queens, where he was stationed when the Mayor turned the police department upside down. Inspector Kelly walked right in and turned around and walked right out again.

Commissioner Baker gathered his inspectors around this morning and informed them that they would lose their velvet cuffs if he caught them lifting the lid. The commissioner had heard rumors from the big tenderloin and many little tenderloins that the good old days have returned for "gentlemen experts" at the wheel and the faro box, and that the easy money will roll in from now until election day. "It is a preposterous lie," said Mr. Baker, and warned the inspectors to be good.

The New First Deputy.

Bugher is the son of the late A. H. Bugher, and is thirty-three years old. His mother is Mrs. Bugher-Ludlow, wife of Rear-Admiral Ludlow, U. S. N. He is a nephew of Mrs. George Dewey and of John R. McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer and the Washington Post.

At the start of the Spanish-American War he was an assistant superintendent of the Washington Gas Light Company. He entered the army as a captain of volunteers, and went to Cuba with General Shafter's first expedition. Captain Bugher fought at El Caney. On his way home he was stricken with fever and he died. He was appointed post quartermaster at Fort Hamilton. He left the army in 1899 and went to California, where he stayed a year. He has a country home, Twin Oaks, at Oakdale, La.; a house in Washington and a schooling preserve and trout pond near Mt. Ararat, in the Alleghenies. He is married. His clubs include the Calumet, of this city; the Metropolitan, Country and Chevy Chase, of Washington, and Essex Country Club, of Massachusetts.

and swollen and the neck had been ripped.

Best was so angry at the inertia of the police and so sure he knew the slayers of his cab driver that he hired three detectives. They collected no evidence, but they collected no evidence that Coroner Squire called in State Detective Canine.

Canning has learned that the roustabouts, thoroughly alarmed on finding that the obstinate driver, whom they had only intended to "trim," was making good their escape. They had already broken in when approaching footstep frightened them away.

Canning now has them all under close surveillance.

...STORE CLOSED MONDAY AT NOON...

K. FISHER & SON,

Main and Fourteenth.

Announcement

Our Removal Sale, which no doubt has been the most successful sale ever held in Richmond, was advertised to end with the closing of our doors at 10 o'clock last night. We find that we have on hand enough of this season's stock to enable us to continue our Removal Sale. We therefore announce that this sale of so much importance to Richmond and surrounding country will continue until we leave our present building, about August 1st, to occupy our new store, 313 East Broad Street, now nearing completion.

Even though our effort to reduce stock was so successful, the best of our High-Grade Merchandise is still to be sold. It stands to reason that when we first opened this sale it was necessary to force goods of the lesser consequence—goods which necessarily had to be marked at prices far below the actual cost to manufacture, to sell them. These goods we have sold out of entirely, leaving nothing but the cream of our stock. It is the better goods which must now be marked at prices which before were only placed on goods we were anxious to dispose of. We are now as anxious to sell the best, and the new and lower prices will sell them.

LAST REDUCTION

The greatest reduction in prices now exist. Through this great stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits, Odd Pants, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings one will find that spring and summer (1909) styles and patterns predominate. No goods will be advertised unless actually in existence. Money will be returned on all goods purchased during the continuation of this sale for any cause whatever.
